

UNITED

for communities

WORK EXPERIENCE OPPORTUNITY APPLICATION “FARM FASHIONS FREE STORE” WORKER at PROVIDENCE FARM

About You:

Date of Application _____

Name _____

Address _____

Home/Cell Phone Number _____

Email _____

Are you over the age of 18? _____

Do you require any accessibility accommodation? If so, how can we help?

Emergency Contact Information:

Name _____

Relationship _____

Home/Cell Phone Number _____

Reference: Someone who knows you and is not a relative

Name _____

Relationship _____

Home/Cell Phone Number _____

Email _____

What skills & experiences do you wish to share? i.e. special interest, hobbies, or experiences:

Qualifications (Please check all that apply to you):

- ☐ BCEA Income Assistance (IA)
- ☐ BCEA Disability Assistance (DA)
- ☐ BCEA Hardship Assistance (HA)
- ☐ BCEA Income Assistance through the Person with Persistent Multiple Barriers to Employment (PPMB) benefit
- ☐ Indigenous individual on reserve or within treaty lands receiving or eligible to receive federal assistance

United Way
British Columbia

Canada

This program is funded by the Government of Canada and the Province of British Columbia.

WORK EXPERIENCE OPPORTUNITY APPLICATION (PAGE 2)

The Farm Fashions Free Store at Providence Farm benefits greatly from the strength and dedication of those who help to support it. This Work Experience Opportunity Application process may take 2-3 weeks and includes a personal interview, reference check, and Ministry of Justice criminal record check (working with vulnerable sector) and an orientation/training session. We are unable to support persons with SO charges, outstanding warrants, or fraud charges.

General Responsibilities

We ask that you follow the Providence Farm “FAMILY” Expectations:

Friendly, Accepting, Respectful, Mindful, Inclusive, Loving
Y because Providence Farm is a Safe Place for You & Me

- Be cheerful and enthusiastic
- Be respectful and supportive
- Be able to get to the Farm with your own transportation
- Be mindful of confidentiality for the Farm’s clients and staff
- Be a role model to all by following Farm policies and procedures
- Be comfortable to work alongside participants, staff, and volunteers

You will gain

- Customer Service Skills – communication, listening, patience, empathy
- Sales and Product Knowledge – presentation, sorting, inventory
- Teamwork, Time Management, Problem Solving Skills, and a Sense of Community

Please forward your completed application by email or in person to:

Chandra Westfall, Farm Fashions Coordinator

farmfashions@providence.bc.ca

Providence Farm
1843 Tzouhalem Road
Duncan, BC V9L 5L6